2) Reports

- a) Officers
 - i) Secretary (Traci Hamilton)
 - (1). Attendance Certificates – coaches that attended 70% of the meetings receive a voucher for one free registration of one player of their choice. If you have any questions regarding attendance, please Traci
 - ii) Web Master (Matt Miller)
 - (1) No Report
 - iii) Ways and Means (Amjad Omar)
 - (1) Met with the Ram to discuss possible fund raiser with buy-one-get-one-free cards, but not sure how many we will get, or how much they will cost. More information to follow at the next meeting
 - iv) Registrar (Kelly Jean)
 - (1) Thank you Coaches, only 21 pending players to date, down from 50
 - (2) Emails were sent out as a reminder to parents to get their children registered. There are 524 kids registered to date
 - (3) Micro rosters will be done later, but hard copy rosters should be available by the June meeting
 - (4) If your roster is not full, there may be additional players put on it until it is full.
 - (5) GU18 is down to one team from two last year. All returning players have been rostered, any additional will be on a first come, first serve basis.
 - (6) Feel free to contact returning players, but please know that any new players may still be moved from your roster so you may not want to contact them yet.
 - (7) New players are defined as players not registered last year with the PSC. These players cannot begin practice before August, as the insurance umbrella does not cover them.
 - v) Treasurer (Roger Hamilton)
 - (1) Budget proposed and passed; 0 abstentions, 0 nays, all in favor
 - (2) Request made to add Amjad Omar to be added as signor on the clubs checking account
 - vi) Vice President (Ralph Hutson)
 - (1) No Report
 - vii) President (Benson Burleson)
 - viii) Tournament Director (John McCafferty)

3) Old Business

- (1) Matt still working on getting a solid count of returning jerseys still yet to come.
- (2) Micro teams will get t-shirts to keep and also new balls with the club logo imprinted
- (3) The goals at Fruitland are okay, just need to be repainted

4) New Business

- (1) The club does provide scholarships for players who cannot afford registration if the player qualifies for free school lunch. The club will also work on a case-by-case scenario, either reimbursing all or half of the registration.
- (2) Thank you Tim McGraw for his generosity in giving his own voucher earned for attending the meetings back to club to be used for a particular player.
- (3) June 19th is the next club meeting
- (4) July meeting will have fields assigned for practices
- (5) Riverside is available now for teams that would like to start practicing now, but please contact Ralph with practice fields to alleviate any conflicts
- (6) Field permits – please make sure you print them off of the club website and carry with you for confirmation of permission to be on the field. The following fields will be available:
 - Fruitland – July 1
 - Meeker – July 1
 - Spinning – July 1
 - Woodland – August 1 (Micro)
 - Shaw – August 1
 - Maplewood – September 1
 - Stewart – August 1 (Micro)
- (7) TPCJSA – Symposium, all board members must be present at the Fife Community Center to sit with club counterpoints for tips and information regarding the duties and responsibilities
- (8) TPCJSA – Board meeting 5/24, Benson will report any news in June meeting
- (9) Picture day scheduled October 6, same vendor as last year
- (10) Doug Andreessen elected to state president of WSYSA, he is formally the President of the Fircrest Soccer Club
- (11) Orange Gate Park – there was a community meeting with 75-80 people in attendance with a land development company. As of now, 75% of the park will stay as is for horse trails. Benson represented our club and voiced his concern over the lack of soccer fields hoping for consideration. More information will follow if available

5) Good of the Game

- a) Greg Jones has decided to retire his post as club treasurer. The club has given him a gift of a plaque as well as a gift card as a thank you for years of solid financial advice, great financial reports of which have withstood audits in good standing.
- b) The club rules, constitution and bylaws call for our club teams to wear our club colors of purple and black of which is strongly recommended. However, the club recommends it, but it will not aggressively enforce it. If you choose to go with another color, please make sure to have an alternate color in case of conflicts. Also, the club logo is available for screen prints if you need it.
- c) The club is still looking for a referee coordinator – if you are interested, please let Benson know, or see Bill Lower.
- d) A reminder that the club reimburses for half of all educational expenses related to coaching, including e-clinics, referee clinics, books, tapes etc. You will need to submit the receipts to the treasurer for reimbursement.

Adjourned 7:57 pm
